The Flutes Gathering is a relaxed afternoon consecrated to the transverse flutes.

The Gathering will cover topics such as flute evolution, traditions, specificity of the flute, playing with others and playing for others.

This event is a supportive, non-competitive atmosphere. It is created to enhance curiosity, learning, personal growth, expression and creativity through making music in a supportive environment.

Access to the event is free and can be joined at anytime. Welcome to all players: performers, teachers and amateurs including curious strings, keyboards and brass players.

Bring along your instrument(s), questions, music and ideas.
